We believe in the provenance of our food, serving quality & offering genuine hospitality

Fresh to Desk takes the upmost pride in creating delicious food using the freshest and highest quality ingredients. We use only British cooked meats and we take pleasure in making our own sandwich fillings and preparing our fruits and vegetables daily to ensure their goodness.

Our service is completed through genuine hospitality and attention to detail. All of this defines every Fresh to Desk business breakfast, brunch or buffet lunch.

Please talk to us if you require something a little more bespoke or if you need to cater for any dietary requirements.

Our food is supplied on returnable white crockery, beautifully presented and ready to serve. We supply complimentary plates & napkins and offer corporate accounts for easy organisation and payment. All prices listed are exclusive of VAT.
